

ALTAR TRIP PLANNED BY LORRAINE MILLER

The engagement of Miss Lorraine E. Miller to William R. Wilcox has been announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Miller of 1027 Patronella avenue, Torrance.

The bridegroom-to-be is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wilcox of 2824 Carson street, Torrance. He is now in his senior year at USC, having graduated from Torrance high school in 1952.

The future Mrs. Wilcox also attends USC, being in her freshman year there. She is a 1954 graduate of Torrance high school.

The couple have set their wedding date following his graduation from SC.

Harbor City P-TA Installs Mrs. Hilzer as President

Mrs. Charles Hilzer was installed as the new president of Harbor City P-TA by Mrs. George Weeks, president-elect of the Lomita-San Pedro Council, who acted as installing officer at the association meeting.

Assisting Mrs. Hilzer in her new duties will be Mesdames R. E. Griffith, first vice-president; A. G. Sipes, second vice-president; Leland Van Buren, secretary; James Triffon, treasurer; James Alexander, auditor; Glenn Deatherage, historian; and William Tregarthen, parliamentarian.

Jewel Theme Used
Mrs. Weeks used jewels as the theme for the installation ceremony, as Mrs. Michael Travers read the historian's report prepared by Mrs. Charles Weeks. Mrs. Tregarthen presented Ms. Carl Gregory, outgoing president, with her record book, and the past-president's pin was presented by Mrs. Hilzer, the president-elect.

Leading the flag salute were Joellen Hamilton, Carol Gleghorn, Brenda Sanders, and Donna Calhoun of the Bluebirds.

Polio Inoculations
It was announced that Dr. Dean Gilman of the health department inoculated 147 children with polio vaccine last week. Dr. Gilman was assisted by Miss Thelma Carter, school nurse, and Mesdames B. J. Overton, James Alexander, James Lewis, Jerry Humble, Michael Travers, Leland Van Buren, Keith Larsen, and Carl Gregory of the P-TA.

GRAYCE HANSEN NAMED JAYCETTES PRESIDENT

Mrs. Fred (Grayce) Hansen of 3126 Torrance blvd., was elected president of the Torrance JayCettes at a general meeting held last week in the Chamber of Commerce building. Mrs. Hansen has been serving as vice-president of the group.

Named to assist the new president on the board were Mesdames Al (Martha) Kline, vice-president; Jack (Juanita) Smith, secretary; William (Barbara) Sturgis, treasurer; John (Louise) Mangan, liaison officer; Brunt (Margaret) Smith, first director; and Bob (Dorothy) Waters, second director.

A joint meeting of the outgoing board and the new board will be held on Tuesday evening, June 14. Members of the outgoing board are Mesdames Howard (Helen) Percy, president; Hansen, vice-president; Clyde (Jo-Anne) Anderson, secretary; Charles (Jean) Herren, treasurer; Dale (Lorraine) Stanton, liaison officer; and Mesdames Joe (Dorothy) Banks and John (Esther) D'Ornellas, directors.

The new JayCettes officers will be officially installed at a joint installation dinner with the JayCees new officers on June 11 at the Western Club in Gardena.

Lomita Flower Show Lists More Entries

The latest entries to sign up for the Lomita Community Flower Show on June 4 and 5 were announced at the May 20 meeting of the Lomita Fuchsia and Garden Society held at the American Legion Hall.

Joining the list of local schools to have entries at the event in Lomita Park, 24428 Eshelman avenue, was Lomita elementary school, which display will be sponsored by Mrs. Marie McDonald.

GARDENA CLUB ENTRIES
New garden club entries were the Beau Jardin Garden Club of Torrance, and the Lawndale

Garden Club, bring the total number of larger non-commercial entrants to ten.
To date there are five entries in the commercial nursery division, and seven commercial florists, it was announced.

Trophies to be awarded at the show are on display as of today, Thursday May 26, at the Lomita Post Office.

DIGNITARIES TO ATTEND
Among prominent civic leaders to attend the show will be John S. Gibson, Jr., president of Los Angeles city council and acting mayor of Los Angeles. Also planning to attend the event is Assemblyman Vincent Thomas, if his duties in Sacramento will permit. Supervisor Burton Chace was invited, but his secretary advised that he would be unable to attend due to business out-of-town.

Guest speaker at the May 20 meeting was Ken Tyler of Pasadena, who spoke on soil and pest control, and W. B. Jonson, also of Pasadena, presented movies on soil conservation.

NEW MEMBERS
Three new members were welcomed into the group; Mr. and Mrs. Al Stubbs, and Mrs. Joseph Gilpin.

Guests include Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Dauphin of Lomita, and Mrs. J. Dewey and Mrs. Stephen Bowman of Torrance.

The guest door prize went to Mrs. Dauphin, and the member prize to Mrs. Gilpin. Birthday plants were awarded to Mrs. Thomas Rossbottom and Mrs. John Slaughter.

The customary plant sale was held after the meeting, and refreshments were served by C. O. Eipper assisted by Kermit Gluth.

St. Andrews Women Fete Mrs. Swenson

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary guilds of St. Andrew's church complimented Mrs. Arlynn Swenson, former parish secretary, with a baby shower last week at the parish hall.

A yellow and white color theme was carried out as the shower table was decorated with yellow and white snapdragons, matching nut cups, and white tablecloth. The lovely sheet cake was decorated to represent a baby bed.

Paper storks decorated the table as well as the basinet in which the gifts were placed. In addition to the many individual gifts, the group combined to present the honoree with a car bed for the baby and a lovely summer negligee set for herself.

Auxiliary members present to fete Mrs. Swenson included Mesdames H. C. St. Martin, Alan Moore, Richard Osgood, Kirk Jelf, Mildred Evans, Albert Sadunas, Anne Grogan, and John Mitoma.

Others were Mesdames Clarence Andrews, A. C. Turner, Richard Eakin, Peter Barker, Ralph Sprout, and Walter Silence.

More were Mesdames M. B. Solomon, Joseph Penn, Lloyd Goddard, Wayne Norman, and Gordon Russell.
